

Make the dialogue on media consolidation public! This is an issue of huge importance and widespread consequence, and deserves thorough public debate. There is no reason you have to keep the language of the rule change from the public eye, and no reason you have to hold this vote on June 2nd. Please hold off and allow Congress and the public to weigh in on this matter.